A decent book, a requirement for my FOL in collegeBy AlexDiversit: La Nouvelle Francophone, was for my college foreign language requirement in college. The story contains many depressing stories, but these depressing stories are relatively true to French/French colonial history. Therefore, they provide an accurate portrayal of the experiences of colonized countries. Each story as a very memorable underlying theme to it, and it requires readers to think a little more into the meaning of the story.At times, the text is a bit difficult to read, so an intermediate background in French would be very helpful :)0 of 1 people found the following review helpful. Rental for classBy KelceyGood condition. Just what I needed for class at a good price.0 of 1 people found the following review helpful. Five StarsBy Den AndyBest price found for school text book. Thanks.

This intermediate- to advanced-level reader contains fifteen unabridged short stories about women protagonists. Cultural, geographical, and historical information heightens students' awareness of each of the countries represented. Updated author profiles written in English help students place the stories within a literary and cultural context.
