It's funny and has great ideas for cleaning. Very pleased. 1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. Needs a translation to American English By Paper or Kindle Some of the terms used by Kim and Aggie are unfamiliar to me. I can figure out most of them in context, but a glossary would have helped. I've happily watched their tv series, but the book has much less information than I had expected: large print, wide margins and glossy pages, but not too much data in there. Their emphasis on manual scrubbing doesn't work for me personally - rather than getting on my hands and knees and working my way through the toilet wearing long rubber gloves, I swish with a Clorox toilet wand and disposable pad. So their methods may take more work and time. I would have liked to know more about their make-it-yourself formulas using eco-friendly substances like white vinegar, baking soda, lemon and salt. Overall, the book was a bit disappointing, but I applaud their efforts to get everyone to keep a clean home! 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Five Stars By Customer awesome!

The stars of Lifetime Television's How Clean is Your House are on a mission to clean up America. Already a runaway bestseller in the UK, this new edition of How Clean Is Your House? is packed with trade secrets and inventive cleaning solutions that will get everyone on this side of the Atlantic back on track and cleaning properly in no time. Watch and learn as the dynamic duo sweeps through a house room by room, offering top tips that will turn any home into a gleaming palace. Each chapter is packed with do's and don'ts, step-by-steps, and amusing before-and-after "grime scene" photographs. There's even a filth questionnaire to determine your cleanliness status. Kim and Aggie also offer ideas for surprising home remedies, such as using a banana peel to dust plants ("the dust clings to the skin and the juice nourishes the leaves.") How Clean Is Your House? is so full of infectious fun that it will make you passionate about cleaning-no home should be without a copy.

"Doing the housework is the new going out." About the Author Aggie MacKenzie are the stars of the hit British TV show How Clean Is Your House? Before they became celebrities, Aggie was an associate editor for Good Housekeeping, while Kim worked as a professional live-in cleaning lady for a sheikh in Kent.
